To whom it may concern,

I am pleased to provide ongoing support to this celebration of the African Music and Cultural Festival.

The success of this event is a tribute to the dedication and enthusiasm of the organisers and of the diverse and vibrant African Australian community.

This important celebration is an opportunity for other communities to learn more about African music and culture.

Well done to the organisers of the African Music and Cultural Festival for the ongoing success of the festival.

I look forward to celebrating and dancing with you.

Yours sincerely

Andrew Crisp APM
Emergency Management Commissioner
